

Legend - Supply Chain Symbology

 MTS	Production site based on forecast and referred to as Make-To-Stock	 ATO	Assembly referred to as Assemble-To-order		Orderpicking in the warehouse as an activity	 circle is pushed	Push product-flow between two locations, initiated by demand forecast. Thick line indicates a product flow.
 MTO	Production based on customer order and referred to as Make-To-order	 sub assembly	Sub-assembly based on forecast Assemble-To-Stock		Scanning products or orders during the order picking process	 circle is pulled	Pull product-flow between two locations, initiated by customer order. Thick line indicates a product flow.
 type of warehouse (regional, national, EDC)	Indicates an end user or consumer of the products or services	 final assembly of product	Final-assembly based on forecast Assemble-To-Stock		Rollin-stock. Denotes the pipeline inventory	 customer order and order leadtime symbol	Dashed line with this symbol denotes an order that is sent from the customer
 EDC	Stock point, inventory or warehouse. If indicated an EDC, NDC, RDC, CDC		Merge-in-Transit. Inbound products are consolidated out seperately		Terminal. Location where inbound flows are sorted using sorting		Indication of the order leadtime measured in hours
 (2) number of suppliers	Supply of components or materials needed for production		Break-bulk. Consolidation of inbound flows and shipped out seperately		Planning entity in the supply chain	 frequency	Forecast with the frequency next to the symbol. Presented next to the line
	Cross docking location. Inbound and outbound flows are linked.		Sorting. Location where inbound flows are sorted using sorting.		Order-book (manufacturing, customer, transport, etc.)	 POS	Point of Sales data exchange
 cross-dock capability at the warehouse	Denotes a supply location of the focal company of raw materials.		Co-Packing		Vendor-managed-inventory	 target	Information about the target stock level
 headquarters or head office	This symbol denotes the headquarters or head office		Production order of the focal company		Consignment stock monitored or controlled by vendor	 status info	Information link between two entities
 prefab	Pre-fabrication of components or modules to be assembled.		Loading of vehicle as an activity in the warehouse		Bonded warehouse, location with customs clearance/free zone	 30°	Water temperature not above 30°C or 80°F
 ATS	Assembly based on forecast and referred as Assemble-To-Stock		Unloading of vehicle as an activity in the warehouse		Rapid fulfillment center. Strategic stock for rapid fulfillment of order		Maximum temperature 110°C or 230°F